

BLADEX ANNOUNCES CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER TRANSITION

Panama City, Republic of Panama, November 19, 2024 – Banco Latinoamericano de Comercio Exterior, S.A. ("Bladex" or the "Bank") announced today that, after 34 years of a successful career at Bladex, Ana Graciela de Mendez, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, has decided to step down from her position, effective April 2025. Mrs. Mendez will continue to work closely with Bladex in the coming months to ensure an orderly and smooth transition of her duties to incoming EVP and CFO Annette van Hoorde.

"We're grateful for Ana Graciela's commitment and exceptional contributions, which have been instrumental to the growth and success of Bladex over the decades. Her leadership and tireless work have left an indelible mark on our organization", said Jorge Salas, Chief Executive Officer of Bladex.

"After an extensive worldwide search with a top executive search firm to find a successor, where both internal and external candidates were evaluated, I'm pleased to announce that Annette van Hoorde, who currently serves as Senior Vice President of Funding and Asset-Liability Management of the Bank, has been selected to assume the role of CFO of Bladex." Mr. Salas added.

Mrs. Mendez said, "I'm thankful for having had the opportunity to contribute to the growth of Bladex and to work alongside such talented and dedicated colleagues. I also want to express my full support for Annette in her new position. Annette is a brilliant dedicated professional, who I fully trust to take on the role and continue building on the foundations we have worked on over the years. I know that she, along with the entire team, will take Bladex to a new level."

About Annette van Hoorde

Annette van Hoorde joined Bladex in August 2005, having served in different capacities throughout the years. In 2010, she became a member of the Treasury team as Assistant Vice President and was promoted to Senior Vice President of Funding and Asset-Liability Management of the Bank's Treasury and Capital Markets Department in January of 2019.

Mrs. van Hoorde holds a Bachelor of Engineering (B.E.) degree in Industrial and Systems Engineering from Virginia Tech and has acquired vast experience in the financial sector, having previously worked at other leading financial institutions.
